

For n voters with competences p_1, \dots, p_n , the neutral* decision rule that maximizes the probability of a correct decision is a weighted voting rule with weights w_1, \dots, w_n such that:

$$w_i \propto \ln \frac{p_i}{1 - p_i}, \text{ for every voter } i.$$