

A two-player game is zero-sum if players' payoffs add up to zero in every outcome. That is, if Player 1 plays action a and Player 2 plays action b , then:

$$u_1(a, b) + u_2(a, b) = 0.$$

In other words, $u_1(a, b) = -u_2(a, b)$.