

We represent a social network as a graph  $G = (V, E)$ , where  $V$  is the set of vertices (agents) and  $E$  is the set of edges (relationships).

The graph can be directed or undirected, depending on whether relationships are one-way or two-way.