

There is a set $N = \{1, \dots, n\}$ of players.

Each player i starts with an endowment e and makes a contribution $c_i \in [0, e]$.

The public good is obtained by pooling all contributions, and multiplying them by a constant $r > 1$.

Each player receives an equal share of the public good.