

Three possible states: susceptible, infected and removed

At time t agents form pairs, as if from getting close to each other.

An infected agent transmits the disease to a nearby susceptible agent with probability τ .

An infected agent becomes removed with probability τ .